

News Update

February 2010

- SYFA Website

The SYFA website will soon undergo enhancements and changes. Some of the features will include news alerts, standards, calendar of events, and a textile dictionary. Please check back often to view the new features.

Address Change

Effective immediately, the contact information for SYFA is as follows:

SYFA

737 Park Trail Lane
Clover, SC 29710
P: 704-589-5895
F: 803-746-5566

www.thesyfa.org

kpettit@thesyfa.org

SYFA Mission

To Promote the Production, Improvement and use of Synthetic Yarns and Fibers

Fibers and Textiles for a New Decade

April 20-21, 2010, Sheraton Airport Plaza, Charlotte, NC Conference announcements, including registration and sponsorship information will be mailed in March. The conference announcement will also be available on the SYFA website. For more conference information, please email Kim Pettit at kpettit@thesyfa.org or call (704) 589-5895.

MegaTex 2010

Once again, SYFA is a proud sponsor of MegaTex. The show will be held at the Georgia World Congress Center, Atlanta, GA, May 18-20. Key industry trade shows (ATME-I/MegaTex, SPESA Expo and Techtextil will be under one roof and this will provide tremendous value for textile and sewn products industry. This event will create a "must attend" event for 2010. See you in Atlanta.

Thank you to all SYFA members, conference attendees, supporters and to all participants during the 2009 year. SYFA is looking forward to a successful 2010!

2010 Membership Dues

For those who have paid 2010 dues, we thank you. If you have not submitted your payment, please take a moment to do so. A membership application can also be found on the SYFA website (<http://thesyfa.org/joinnow.asp>). Dues for 2010 remain at $140. Benefits include conference discounts, copies of all presentations, news alerts, members only section of the website along with many others. If you know someone who might be interested in SYFA membership, please let us know. Contact the SYFA office if you have any questions.